

Press Release
Fuel Price Adjustments

For Immediate Release

Thursday, 8 April, 2021

Maseru — The Petroleum Fund Secretariat wishes to inform the public that the prices of petroleum products will be adjusted effective from Friday, April, 2021. The pump price of petrol<sub>93</sub> will be increased by ninety (90) lisente per litre, petrol<sub>95</sub> will be increased by ninety-five (95) lisente per litre and the pump price of diesel<sub>50</sub> will be increased by forty-five (45) lisente per litre.

The new pump price of Illuminating Paraffin will be Nine Maloti and Forty-five lisente (M9.45) as the regulation of price of this product is now regulated at retail level.

The new Retail Prices for all the districts of Lesotho shall be as follows:

Petrol <sub>93</sub>	M	13.60 per litre
Petrol <sub>95</sub>	M	13.75 per litre
Diesel <sub>50</sub>	M	13.40 per litre
Domestic Paraffin ( Retail )	M	9.45 per litre

The Petroleum Fund wishes to appeal to all Retailers to charge proper prices because it is illegal to charge prices that are different from the gazetted ones. This appeal comes from past observations that some retailers have continued to charge prices that are above those set and any retailer who will be found to be charging prices in contravention of these newly set prices, shall be prosecuted accordingly. The public is further made aware that there is a toll-free number to which any non-compliance should be reported and this number is 80022004.

Copies of this "Press Release" can be obtained from the Petroleum Fund Secretariat offices at LCCI Building, Orpen Road, Old Europa, Maseru, Petroleum Fund Website (www.petroleum.org.ls) and local radio stations.
